

RIPHAH INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY PESHAWAR CAMPUS RESEARCH BOARD (RRB)

RRB will be appointed by the Riphah International University Peshawar Campus with a minimum of three members and chaired by the advisor health education Riphah International University Peshawar Campus. Its primary goal and function will be facilitation and streamlining the research activities in the institutions of Riphah International University Peshawar Campus.

Functions:

In order to achieve the above the RRB will have the following functions

1. Budgetary allocation for research in annual budget of Riphah International University Peshawar Campus
2. Establish and develop a research fund on permanent basis which will be called Riphah International University Peshawar Campus Research Fund. It will include but not limited to the budgetary allocations of Riphah International University Peshawar Campus. For this purpose, it will suggest and approve ways and means for increase in such research fund.
3. Facilitate the various research committees in their function.
4. On the recommendations of the concerned committees, the RRB will approve the ToRs, for grants (e.g. travel grants etc) and awards for individuals or groups for participations / presentations, or any other recommendation made by a committee including but not limited to HRD plan in the area of research and development. Such approval will consequently empower the respective authorities to execute the approved TORs / SOPs / Guidelines / Plan etc as may be required, however a subsequent change may be proposed by the respective committee / institution or the RRB itself, whenever required.
5. Sanction of Final recommendations of budget of the concerned committees / departments / institutions, as may be required.
6. Evaluate the annual progress report of the research activities of the various committees / departments / institutions of Riphah International University Peshawar Campus and submit a report to BoD of the Riphah International University Peshawar Campus.
7. Appoint focal person(s) to monitor / evaluate financial activity related to research project(s) of a committee, group, subgroup or individual whenever and wherever deemed necessary.
8. It shall hold at least two meetings in a financial year
9. Delegate part or whole of its powers to any committee related to research for a specified time.